

FOR EUROGATE LOGISTICS SP. Z O.O.

valid since 22 February 2022

EUROGATE LOGISTICS Sp. z o.o. adopted the following Integrated Management System Policy referring to clients, subcontractors and employees::

The Quality Policy of EUROGATE LOGISTICS is to provide clients with all services associated with forwarding of goods, as well as for domestic and international market, in export and import, in compliance with clients' requirements including food products according to HACCP and medicinal products according to GDP requirements, respecting the environment.

Integrated Management System Policy covers, the physical limits - the space rented for all of offices, and within the functional limits - all departments, employees and the subcontractors of the Company, excluding the Ferry division.

Freight Forwarding Departments	Address	System type	Certyfication scope
Main Office	ul. Łopuszańska 95, 02-457 Warszawa	QMS EMS	National and international road, sea, railway and air freight forwarding.
Wrocław	Al. Armii Krajowej 61, 50-541 Wrocław		National and international road freight forwarding.
Kraków	ul. Kuklińskiego 17A, 30-720 Kraków		National and international road freight forwarding.
Gdynia	Ul. Pucka 5, 81-036 Gdynia		National and international road, sea and railway freight forwarding.

Achieving the best level of service requires from all the employees, associated with handling clients' orders, systematic and organized attitude in accordance with the principles of quality services.

All activities should be performed in accordance with the description specified in Quality Management System Manual and in operational procedures.

In order to provide the best service, EUROGATE LOGISTICS Management obliges all employees to improve constantly Quality Management System effectiveness, basing on quality objectives, management overview as well as the risks and opportunities analysis affecting company activities.

EUROGATE LOGISTICS guarantees to respect each employee's rights and dignity, as well as proper work conditions in accordance with health and safety requirements.

EUROGATE LOGISTICS has defined the environmental aspects and through the risks and opportunities assessment, reduces negative effects on the environment. These commitments are also imposed on all subcontractors.

On behalf of all employees I declare the compliance with the Policy and continuous improvement of Integrated Management System, in accordance with the requirements of PN-EN ISO 9001:2015; PN-EN ISO 14001:2015 including legal requirements regarding environmental impact.

Warszawa, 22.02.2022 r. Vice President of the Board, Grzegorz Ocipka

EUROGATE LOGISTICS Sp. z o.o.

Grzegorz Ocipka
WICEPREZES ZARZĄDU

